Advertisers Know the Worth of Advertising

Newspapers are national advertising mediums. They can sell any article of merit from a paper of pins to a $20,000 necklace, and the sooner merchants with goods to sell recognize this fact the sooner they will make sales.

KAUAI MURDERERS SCARE LIQUOR INFORMERS

46 UNION MEN UP FOR DYNAMITING

Murder Is Charged To Immigrant Russians 14 Rioters Are Held

(Special Bulletin Wireless.)
HONOLULU, Mar. 12.—With fourteen persons indicted for murder in the first degree, the Kekaha riot case comes up next Friday for trial.
It is foreseen that the jury panel of 165 may be exhausted in an effort to secure a jury in the case, because of the difficulty of securing men eligible to serve.

All of the cases of illicit liquor selling have been dismissed for lack of evidence. The failure to secure the expected evidence is attributed to fear among the witnesses as a result of the murder of the Japanese informer during the Kekaha rioting.

The outcome of the situation is extremely problematical.

FEDERATION NOT LIKELY TO GO INTO POLITICS

The reelection of Arthur G. Smith as president and a decision that the Federation shall take but little part in active politics are two important results predicted by Civic Federation leaders today for a meeting of the executive committee that will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Public Service Association headquarters.

The Federation with this meeting will enter upon a new year. The executive committee names the officers, and standing committees are to be reorganized.

President Arthur G. Smith is favored for reelection if he will accept the office again. The past year saw many results accomplished by the Federation under his leadership. In case he refuses to serve another term there is some talk of electing to the presidency J. M. McChesney, now second vice-president and chairman of the Parks Committee which has carried to a splendid success the plans for the Japanese gardens in Nuuanu valley.

That the Federation should take no active part in municipal politics except a general stand for good government is the opinion freely expressed by many of the members as a result of the "questionnaire" which showed the organization much divided on the subject. The members gave a large majority in favor of eliminating politics from municipal elections and for

Immigrant Russians 14 Rioters Are Held

The Federal Immigration Service and the Territorial Board of Immigration have bumped into trouble over the presence here of fifteen Russians from the Far East, who were brought here by the Board of Immigration under its labor-importation plans.

According to good reports, the Federal department has held up entry of the immigrants until it can be shown that they are not violating any contract-labor or other similar Federal laws which surround immigration into the United States.

Inspector-in-Charge Richard L. Halsey, of the Federal service, said this morning that he cannot make public the exact nature of the case nor its present status, as a special board of inquiry has been called and has not yet made its findings public. A number of rumors have emanated from both sides, one of which was that the immigrants were held because of health conditions, but when asked about this today Mr. Halsey said that only one man is in the hospital under medical supervision.

The immigrants came here at the instance of the Territorial Board to join relatives or friends. They have been held at the station for some ten days now.

CHINESE PARADE NEXT MONDAY TO BE SPECTACULAR

Announcement was made this morning of the details of a big parade the Chinese of Honolulu will hold next Monday morning to celebrate the establishment of the new Republic of China.

William H. Crawford has been named grand marshal of the day, and yesterday completed the order of parade and line of march. The parade itself will be a gorgeous one.

In the parade there will be floats and decorated automobiles. The flags of all the different Chinese societies, including masonry emblems, will be displayed as the procession passes through the streets of Chinatown. The members of the Wo On Society, wearing full regalia, will take part in the parade and, taking all in all, it is expected that the celebration will be a success.

Mayor J. J. Fern has ordered the Hawaiian Band under the leadership of Captain Berger to furnish the music. Four special mounted officers will lead the procession as it leaves Aala Park at 11 o'clock. The formation of the procession at the park will begin at 10 o'clock.

MAHUKA CASE ATTORNEYS IN CLASH OVER TWO-CENT ITEM

An item of two cents nearly started a row in the Federal Court this morning during the hearing of the Mahuka site case before Judge Dole, and as it was, Attorneys Breckons and Prosser questioned, said Breckons, "and I intend to get the answer. Where did you get that two cents from?" But before the witness finally got down to this stage, the midday adjournment was taken. He will unfold the story to the jury this afternoon.

Robert R. Reidford was on the grill again this morning, being called as a witness by Castle & Cooke. His valuation of the lease, which has still nine

HAWAII'S BELT ROAD COST STIRS SUPERVISORS TO ACTION

Declaring that the cost of the proposed belt-road sections on Hawaii, for which bids were opened last week, is excessive, and registering a hard and official kick thereat, the Hawaii supervisors have passed resolutions, copies of which reached Honolulu today.

As published in the Bulletin last Saturday, the bids for the road sections were remarkably high, so high that the available funds would be strained, and Hawaii people were not satisfied that the contracts should be let. A. A. Wilson was the lowest bidder on each section, making a figure of $98,889.35 for the Wainaku-Hakalau section, and $47,916.97 for the Bolobola section.

The resolutions of protest are as follows:

Ainahau Is Wanted

The plans of A. L. Black, former Mayor of Bellingham, Wash., and a big real estate operator of the Northwest to secure a large Waikiki Beach tract and develop a hotel and tourist resort have not been abandoned, but have been postponed awaiting action by the Territorial Legislature.

Included in these plans, which involved the expenditure of some $200,000, was the securing of "Ainahau," the late ex-Governor Cleghorn's beautiful and historic estate. The title to this is somewhat up in the air. It was offered to the Territory for a park under the terms of the ex-Governor's will, but the Legislature after some hesitation did not accept the offer.

Mr. Black wants a clear title to the property, and it is hoped that the matter will be definitely settled when the special session of the Legislature is held this spring—if the session is held.

Mr. Black has returned to Bellingham, but has made arrangements for representation here, and there is believed to be a good prospect that the various deals will go through.
